

FRESH TAKES

“It takes a touch of genius,” Albert Einstein once said, “to move in the opposite direction.” The best young talents steer clear of the safe and the conventional, creating work to suit our ever-evolving needs and desires. Whether experimenting with innovative materials or simply fashioning beguiling spaces with a fresh eye, they have the power to surprise and delight.